RESTRAINING NOTICE

WHEREAS, it appears that you are indebted to the judgment debtor, above named, or in the possession or custody of property not capable of delivery in which the judgment creditor has an interest, including, without limitation, the following specified debt and property:
checking and/or savings account held in the name of judgment debtor;

TAKE NOTICE, that pursuant to 5222(b) of the Civil Practice Law and Rules, set forth herein, you are hereby forbidden to make or suffer any sale, assignment or transfer of, or interference with, any such property and/or debt described aforesaid, or pay over or otherwise dispose of any such aforesaid property and/or debt, except as therein provided;

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE, that this notice also covers all property in which the judgment debtor has an interest hereafter coming into your possession, custody, and/or control, and all debts hereafter coming due from you to the judgment debtor;

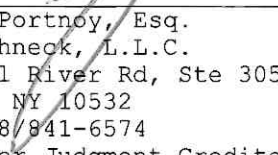

Section 5222(b) Effect of restraint; prohibition of transfer; duration. A judgment debtor served with a restraining notice is forbidden to make or suffer any sale, assignment, transfer or interference with any property in which he has an interest, except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section, and except upon direction of the sheriff or pursuant to an order of the court, until the judgment is satisfied or vacated. A restraining notice served upon a person other than the judgment debtor is effective only if, at the time of service, he owes a debt to the judgment debtor or he is in the possession or custody of property in which he knows or has reason to believe the judgment debtor has an interest, or if the judgment creditor has stated in the notice that a specified debt is owed by the person served to the judgment debtor or that the judgment debtor has an interest in specified property in the possession or custody of the person served. All property in which the judgment debtor is known or believed to have an interest then in and thereafter coming into the possession or custody of such a person, including any specified in the notice, and all debts of such a person, including any specified in the notice, then due and thereafter coming due to the judgment debtor, shall be subject to the notice except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section. Such a person is forbidden to make or suffer any sale, assignment or transfer of, or any interference with, any such property, or pay over or otherwise dispose of any such debt, to any person other than the sheriff except as set forth in subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section, and except upon direction of the sheriff or pursuant to an order of the court, until the expiration of one year after notice is served upon him, or until the judgment is satisfied or vacated, whichever event first occurs. A judgment creditor who has specified personal property or debt in a restraining notice shall be liable to the owner of the property or the person to whom the debt is owed, if other than the judgment debtor, for any damages sustained by reason of the restraint. If a garnishee served with a restraining notice withholds the payment of money belonging or owed to the judgment debtor in an amount equal to twice the amount due on the judgment, the restraining notice is not effective as to other property or money.

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR is annexed hereto.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that disobedience of this Restraining Notice is punishable as a contempt of court.
